

Student's Prank or a Joke on his Parents

LENGTH, 580 FEET

COPYRIGHT 1908

Rube has been to High School for a year. He comes home to see his parents. Nobody saw him coming and so he decides to play a joke on his old folks. Putting on whiskers he enters the house. The mother sees him first and thinking he is a robber calls the iceman to her aid. The iceman gets hold of the father instead of the son and throws him out of the house. After many more mixups between father, iceman and son, the latter discloses his identity. An extremely funny subject. No. 71

Philadelphia, The Cradle of Liberty

LENGTH 305 FEET

COPYRIGHT 1908

Of all interesting cities of the United States, Philadelphia is the most interesting and dear to the heart of every true American. Our Film depicts historical scenes beginning with:

1. The Independence Hall where the Declaration of Independence was signed.
2. Where George Washington was inaugurated President of the United States.
3. The Betsy Ross House where the first American Flag was made.
4. The Grave of Benjamin Franklin.
5. Where the first Continental Congress assembled.
6. Where the first Supreme Court of the United States was held.
7. Benedict Arnold, the Traitors' Home.
8. The United States Mint, the largest in America.
9. Scenes from Fairmount Park.

We intend to place on the market from time to time interesting and historical American scenes and are sure the public will appreciate these Films. No. 84

2500-6-08

MANUFACTURER OF

Life Motion Picture Machines, Films,
Slides and Stereopticons

Lubin Building, 926-928 Market St., Phila., Pa.